Take the Spa Home

Telegraph Hill, the only design-based robe supplier to the world's best-known spas, is celebrating their 10th anniversary this fall with the introduction of the two-layer Cabana Robe ($152). Easy to pack and chic enough to make mom feel like it's a special occasion, the poly-chiffon robe makes every wearing like a trip to the spa.

Mother's Day Gift Guide

She's very possibly the most important person in your life. She has raved about countless macaroni art pieces and not said anything too drastic about your last girlfriend. She brought you into this world and she deserves a great gift. Here are our favorites - the gift wrap is all you, buddy.

Travel, Fashion and Her Shampoo

Finally, mom doesn't have to decide, "Am I checking my bags or am I taking my own shampoo?" With the Clear Bag System ($39.99) from 311 Travel Bags, all your personal care products make the journey with you, in perfect compliance with TSA regulations. The pumps make dispensing any product easy and hassle free, and they are sturdy enough for frequent traveling. No more throwing away expensive products at the security checkpoint or using drug store brands as a bad compromise.

Make Her Workout Easier

Ever noticed how inconvenient it is to try to hang on to keys, cell phone, water bottle, towel and other stuff while working out? Give mom the Fitness Caddy® ($19.99) by Glisten - a slender tote that holds everything securely and safely, without any hands. While you're ordering, pick up one for yourself.

Easy on the Eyes

If your mom likes to read in bed, she'll love the Merriam-Webster Dictionary PageMark Edition with Book Light ($80). It functions as a dictionary, bookmark and book light, all in about the same size as a small paperback. No more keeping dad up while she catches up on some work and also perfect for the plane, this handy gadget will be her favorite gift.
