You can see right through it

How much shampoo, hair gel, cologne, body wash, and conditioner have you handed over to airport security personnel because you were carrying more than 3 ounces of each - or you didn't use the required plastic bags? We don't want to depress you, we want to offer a solution with the TSA-approved Clear Bag System by 3-1-1 Travel Bag. You can take your pick of three clear vinyl zipper toiletry bags which come with five, six, or seven pumps and jars to hold all your stuff. And holiday gift wrap is available through Friday ($2.50). $24.95-$39.95 (the $44.95 bag is on sale for $39.95 until Friday); $4-$6.50 for additional pumps and jars.
